++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunny spells, with some cloudier interludes.

Today:
A cloudy morning for most with the chance of a little light rain or drizzle over high ground in the north of the region. However, sunny spells will develop during the morning and becoming widespread for the afternoon. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry night with clear spells for most. However, a band of cloud will bring some patchy light rain into west Cornwall late on Saturday night, later clearing eastwards overnight. Minimum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Sunday:
A largely dry morning with sunny spells. However, further cloud and showery rain moves across Cornwall and Devon from the west through the late morning and afternoon. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Mostly dry with sunny spells through this period, although with some cloudier interludes. It will be breezy at times.
